Ruling demy royal and super royal red, and feint lined to pattern, with printed captions, per quire, for all the above.
Folding, stitching, cutting and quarter binding, 16, to 18,000 copies of the Laws and Instructions, should the Department order their publication.
Specimens of blank books, now in use, may be seen in the various offices and divisions of the Department. The paper will be furnished by the Department.
The bids for binding books must specify the price per quire.
The price must be annexed to each item contained in the advertisement, and no bid will be considered which contemplates more than one price for any one article or kind of work.
The Department reserves the right of prescribing the patterns for feint lining and ruling in all cases.
The bids must be accompanied by ample testimony of the ability of the bidder to perform the work. The per cent of the price of the work executed will be retained, as security for its faithful performance.
A refusal or failure to execute any work in due time after it is ordered, disregarding the instructions of the Department as to the manner of its execution, shewn execution of the work, failing to account for or return on demand paper handed over to account, substituting other paper, or any other attempt to evade the true meaning of the contract, will be a forfeiture of the contract and of the ten per cent retained.
Proposals should be addressed to the Postmaster General, and endorsed "Proposals for Binding."
